“2008: Will it be No-Growth or Slow-Growth?”

- Can the U.S. economy overcome the subprime mortgage problem and the credit squeeze?
- Are consumers all tapped out by debt, falling home prices, and higher gasoline prices? The answers might surprise you!
- What two factors will play crucial roles in determining company success in the years ahead?
- What comes after the election?

Dr. Ken Mayland is President of ClearView Economics, LLC, a firm specializing in economic research and forecasting. Ken was previously the Chief Economist of two major financial institutions. Graduating with degrees in economics from MIT and the University of Pennsylvania, he has spent more than thirty years studying the business cycle and providing economic analyses to a variety of constituencies.

Dr. Mayland is a member of the Blue Chip Economic Forecasters and Financial Forecasts survey panels, and several wire service and newspaper survey panels. He has been a past member of the Economic Advisory Committee for the State of Ohio under various Governors, and he has held several leadership positions with the National Association for Business Economics. In December 2006, BusinessWeek determined that Dr. Ken was THE #1 most accurate forecaster for 2006!!
